

HAYWARD-BIBB

SON OF MR. AND MRS. E. W. W. HAYWARD WEDS MISS MARTHA BIBB OF PASADENA

The wedding of E. Payson Hayward, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward of 307 North Kenwood St., this city, and Miss Martha Bibb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bibb of Pasadena, took place Saturday evening at 5 o'clock at the Church of the Angels, which was comfortably filled with friends and relatives, and which was beautifully decorated with pink gladioli, asparagus plumosus and gypsophylla.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore a wedding gown of white net, over which fell the wedding veil of her husband's mother, surmounted by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a huge bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses, lilies of the valley and forget-me-nots. Attending her as bridesmaid was Miss Thelma Cate, groomed in cream net embroidered in blue, wearing a picture hat of pink and carrying pink and white sweet peas.

Julian S. Hayward, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Carlyle Bibb, brother of the bride, was usher and escorted the best man to the altar where he joined the waiting groom and clergyman.

Following the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bibb at 2 Alexandria Court, Pasadena, where a wedding supper was served to fourteen guests. The bride there exchanged her wedding gown for a going-away costume of gray satin with pink trimmings, and hat and shoes to match. About 8 p. m. the young people left on their honeymoon trip from which they expect to return the latter part of the week.

They have secured an apartment at 200-A North Louise street, this city, where they will be able to use many of the beautiful gifts of which they have been the recipients, and which include about $2000 in cash.

The bride is the daughter of a retired manufacturer who came to Pasadena from Tacoma about a year ago. She is an accomplished musician and linguist and takes pride in her housewifely accomplishments. There is little doubt she will find a warm welcome among the young matrons of this city.

The groom is an ex-service man and member of the Glendale Post of the American Legion, and has a large circle of friends here.

RETURN FROM CARPINTERIA

Miss Chase of the local telephone office and Miss Sara Pollard have just returned from a week's outing at Carpinteria, where they were guests at the Palms Hotel which is being run by Mrs. F. O. Bailey and Miss Mabel Thayer, who was formerly a teacher in the Intermediate School in this city. The two ladies say they had a delightful time and that it is a charming place to go for a beach outing. While there they visited the old mission at Santa Barbara and went up into the hills to see some of the famous summer homes of millionaires. They also saw the 1000-acre estate which former Secretary McAdoo has purchased with the declared intention of selling a part and reserving a goodly portion on which to build himself a beautiful home.

SURPRISE PARTY

MISS BETTIE WARNER VICTIM OF PLEASANT PLOT OF SCHOOL FELLOWS

Miss Bettie Warner, who is leaving this week to return to her home in the State of Washington after spending the winter here as a student at Glendale High, was guest of honor at a pretty social affair and surprise for her given Saturday night by Doris Packer and Johnny Richardson, with the assistance of the mothers of the host and hostess. Johnny and Bettie were dinner guests in the Packer home. When Johnny brought Bettie to his mother's home to say good-bye to Mrs. Richardson, the young people who had been awaiting them and concealed in the living room burst out and surrounded Bettie, making her a prisoner by binding her with paper streamers in pastel shades. The company then had a delightful evening of games, music and dancing on the tennis court and at its close adjourned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Packer where refreshments were served. About 36 boys and girls, most of them High School students, were present.

F. R. LIDDELL SELLS

MR. AND MRS. A. M. DRAPER, NEW COMERS FROM DETROIT, ARE PURCHASERS

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Draper, relatives of Mrs. Charles A. Parker who arrived last week from Detroit, Michigan, to seek a permanent home in Southern California, have purchased a fine place, the F. R. Liddell home at 534 North Kenwood street. They were very anxious for beautiful grounds as well as a commodious house and the Liddell residence so completely met their demands that they did not long hesitate over its purchase. They are to have possession in a few weeks, as soon as Mrs. Liddell can find a temporary dwelling for which she will look in Hollywood, as that will be more convenient for her son. She explains that the reason for selling is that she and Mr. Liddell have purchased one of the knoll sites in the beautiful tract that is being laid out near Burbank. Their property is outside the city of Burbank proper and is really in Los Angeles but is only about half a mile above the P. E. line. The company is now at work on improvements, the laying out of streets and boulevards, installation of water pipes and electricity, etc., and the grounds will not be ready for the erection of a building under three months. Mr. and Mrs. Liddell are happy in the prospect of a home there where they will command a most wonderful view of the valley and have such a picturesque situation as Mr. Liddell has always desired ever since he came to California. This reconciles them to parting with their Kenwood street home to which they are greatly attached and which they would not surrender otherwise.

Mrs. Draper is like a sister to Mrs. Parker, their relations having been unusually intimate, and the Parkers are therefore very much delighted over the addition of this new family to Glendale. The Drapers are now at Hermosa Beach.

MORE INGLEDUES COMING

Quite a party of relatives was entertained at dinner on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingledue at 411 North Central avenue, the group including Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ingledue of Los Angeles and daughter Elta, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ingledue and daughter Grace, who have come here from Marshalltown, Iowa, to make a new home and are looking very favorably upon Glendale. Mrs. Ernest Fess and Mrs. John College of Los Angeles. The Ingledues of Glendale are very much pleased over the big colony of relatives that is establishing itself in Southern California.

MEEKERS RETURN

PICKED CHERRIES IN SONOMA COUNTY AND TOURED THE BIG BASIN REDWOODS

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Meeker and their daughter, Evelyn, of East Colorado boulevard, returned Sunday night from another wonderful northern auto trip. They made brief stops on the way up in San Francisco and Oakland and then went into Sonoma county where various members of the Meeker clan have big fruit ranches. Cherries were ripe and the little girl who had never had the joy of picking ripe cherries insisted on staying long enough to thoroughly enjoy the experience. Mrs. Meeker, who had not seen ripe cherries on the tree in 20 years was ready to second her daughter's plea and so they remained for the feast while Mr. Meeker rode on into certain almost inaccessible parts of Humboldt county which he wanted to visit but into which he would not take members of his family for $500, he declares, so poor and dangerous are the mountain roads. In one mountain ascent the machine had to be backed five times at every turn of the steep, narrow trail and in one place where there was seemingly room for but one vehicle, he discovered a team of young horses, driven by a man and boy descending. There was a nook into which the team could retreat and Mr. Meeker motioned for them to take it, but the team was young and mettlesome and before the passage could be maneuvered they sprang forward carrying the wagon over the fenders of the car and dragging it back until it seemed sure to go over the edge of the road to a fall of a thousand feet or more. But the car stopped and the team went on without misadventure. (Continued on Page 4)

TEN VICE-PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

BOOMS STARTING FOR FAVORITE SONS FOR SECOND PLACE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Ten potential vice presidential booms were getting under way in the Democratic convention today. These included booms for several whose names will be presented for presidential honors also. While there was much talk of a deal whereby Cox would have second place on a ticket headed by McAdoo at the same time it was whispered that Meredith is being groomed for second place on a ticket headed by Cox.

Other vice presidential candidates include Governor Stewart of Montana, former Governor Hawley of Idaho, ex-Senator James Hamilton Lewis, Brigadier General Pyson of Tennessee, Edward L. Doheney, oil magnate of California, David R. Francis of Missouri, ex-Governor Hodges of Kansas, and Vice President Marshall.

It was evident today that administration forces still control the convention organization. The action in committee meetings in the last 24 hours showed strong administration leanings.

In the meantime the McAdoo boom had passed beyond the stage where it was in charge of volunteer workers and experienced politicians were taking over the McAdoo boom today. It is understood that McAdoo's campaign leaders and other generals assigned to special work have already been named.

CONVENTION CHAIRMAN'S SPEECH

JOSEPH K. ROBINSON VIGOROUSLY ASSAILS REPUBLICAN PLATFORM AND POLICIES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—In a speech accepting the permanent chairmanship of the Democratic national convention, Joseph Robinson of Arkansas today vigorously assailed the Republican platform. He characterized it as "an amazing jungle of ambiguous inconsistencies, evasions, misrepresentations, straddles and slanders."

He declared that the charge the Democratic administration failed to prepare for war was "deliberately unfair," and charged that previous Republican administrations were responsible for the failure to carry out a preparedness program.

He characterized the Republican economy plank as "absurd" and claimed that the Republican congress just closed appropriated for the coming year billions of dollars in excess of the appropriations of the Democratic congress for 1916.

He said the Republican tariff plank is "pleasantly amusing." He attacked the profiteering plank vigorously charging that the Republican congress just closed had overlooked entirely its opportunity to pass anti-profiteering laws.

He arraigned the reckless use of money by the Republican aspirants to the Republican nomination at Chicago. He lauded Wilson's administration for its "honesty and efficiency" and said: "Although mistakes might have been disclosed and unwise expenditures brought to light," there had been no graft.

He charged that Senator Penrose and Admiral Sims made their attacks on the U. S. Navy for political purposes only.

He defended Article Ten of the League of Nations covenant declaring it does not affect American sovereignty and expressed the belief that if a Republican president is elected small nations which won their independence in the war will be overcome by their old enemies and all Europe will return to pre-war conditions.

DR. BROUGHER WINS

IN COMPETITION WITH DR. J. A. FRANCIS, IS ELECTED TO BAPTIST CONVENTION COMMITTEE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
BUFFALO, N. Y., June 29.—Rev. James Whitcomb Brougher of Los Angeles, who married Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks, today was elected a member of the executive committee of the Northern Baptist convention meeting here.

Brougher was opposed by Rev. J. A. Francis of Los Angeles who is among those who supported a resolution introduced last week which would have placed the convention on record as opposed to the marrying of divorced couples. The resolution was tabled. The vote today was: Brougher 609, Francis 422.

SEEK TO BREAK UNIT RULE

FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT ARGUES BEFORE THE RULES COMMITTEE FOR NEW YORK DELEGATES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Franklin Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, opened the argument today before the rules committee in favor of a resolution to permit the New York delegation to vote as individuals, thus breaking the unit rule as far as that state is concerned.

This change is favored by New York delegates who want to vote for McAdoo. Under the unit rule they claim that Tammany would control the delegation and cast its solid vote for whichever candidate Charles F. Murphy favored.

SMALL VICTORY FOR TAMMANY

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Tammany was victorious today in a sharp contest in the New York delegation, over the liquor question.

CAMPING SCOUTS

BOYS OF TROOP NO. 2 ENJOY LIFE ON "BALDY" WITH SCOUTMASTER ROBINSON

Boy Scouts of Troop No. 2, who are spending the week on Mount Baldy with Scoutmaster Benjamin Robinson, are evidently having a royal good time. Assistant Scoutmaster H. Benjamin Robinson and Star Scout Burton Kuntzner were the advance guard and arrived at Camp Baldy at 8 o'clock Friday night. They worked until midnight making camp and were up again at 5 a. m. So effective was their morning's work that by noon on Saturday the camp was practically ideal. At 4 o'clock that afternoon 22 boy scouts in charge of Scoutmaster Robinson reached the camp and in a very short time the "O. K. Kafeteria" was in working order and well patronized. Gallons of beans, corn and cocoa disappeared with great rapidity.

After mess the scouts spent some time cutting cedar boughs for their beds. Retreat was sounded and a short camp fire was enjoyed. By unanimous vote of the troop the camp was named "Camp Robinson" in honor of the Scoutmaster and Assistant Scoutmaster. Scout David Roberts was presented with a first-class pin. Taps were sounded and a tired but happy bunch of boys went to bed.

The camp is situated on a rocky island between two beautiful streams and is shaded by huge trees. On all four sides are towering mountains of great height.

BENTLEY-SCHOENEMAN CO. TO CONSOLIDATE LUMBER STOCKS

What the citizens of Glendale tried to bring about years ago as a matter pertaining to the public welfare, the Bentley-Schoeneman Co. is doing now of its own accord. That is, moving the lumber yard and planing mill that for years have been in the very center of the city's residence and business building section. With the enlargement of the new yards bought of the Hammond Lumber Company at Los Feliz Road and S. P. tracks, the entire stock of lumber and other building materials will be kept there and the planing mill moved to the new location. The stock will be sold off as fast as possible from the uptown location and none brought in. After the yards are entirely emptied, the ground will either be leased or will be used to erect residences or business buildings on. The present sales office will be retained, however.

ALUMNI DANCE

About seventy-five couples responded to the invitation to attend the Alumni Dance which came off Monday night. Blondie Clark's orchestra furnished excellent music and everybody present had a thoroughly good time. An election of officers had been planned, but the intention was abandoned because the alumni representation was considered not large enough to warrant it. The committee in charge of the dance consisted of Walter Beach, Miller Fishel and Miss May Church.

LAUDS SIGNS

FILLMORE CITIZEN COMPLIMENTS GLENDALE ON ELECTRIC POINTERS

Glendale Evening News, Glendale, Cal.

Dear Sir:—It is my desire to congratulate Glendale on the enterprising manner which they have taken to direct the traveling public to their city by erecting the two electric signs across San Fernando Road.

Many people have asked me the question, "How do I get to Glendale from the San Fernando Road," or "Where do I turn off to go there," and I am sure they will have no trouble now and that your travel will be much increased by the method you have taken.

The forward march of any town is by its progressiveness, such as you have displayed, and as an out-of-town citizen I can say that Glendale as a city will be far ahead of most of the cities surrounding Los Angeles in a very short time.

Once more, congratulations to the enterprising city of Glendale.

Yours very truly,
R. A. GRAHAM,
Fillmore, Ventura Co.

JOHN LANG, NEW PHARMACIST, SPEAKS HIGHLY OF NEW HOME

John Lang, for 28 years a resident of Los Angeles county, most of the time in the big city, is mightily pleased with his choice for a new location. He looked around quite a bit before fixing upon Glendale as a promising city in which to invest liberally. He bought a lot at the corner of Central avenue and Ivy and had a two-room, one-story business building erected. The corner room, No. 129 South Central, he occupies as a drug store and confectionery, and says of the three stores of the kind he has started in his business career, this one is by far the most promising. He has as an assistant in the store his cousin, Miss Camille Stephens, who came to California four years ago from Denver, Colo., to regain her health, in which quest she was entirely successful. She has been his assistant before in the same kind of work, so is a valuable aid to him in his venture. The other room of the building, No. 131, he has leased to Cyrus Goodyer, who has been in the delicatessen and lunch room business in Los Angeles for 20 years and will engage in a like business here. He has bought the Frank Motsch residence property at 216 East Park avenue, and he and his wife will occupy it as soon as it is vacated.

PRESBYTERIAN PICNIC

From the viewpoint of attendance and every other consideration the Glendale Presbyterian Sunday School and church picnic which took place Saturday afternoon at Brookside Park was quite a success. About two hundred and fifty were present. Then vanguard left here at 2:30 and parties continued going all the afternoon, the picnic dinner not being served until about six o'clock. Each picnicer was supposed to carry his or her own lunch, but the youngsters were furnished with a treat in the way of ice cream, and for the adults hot coffee was provided. Mr. Finley was master of the games with which the boys and girls were entertained during the afternoon and following the dinner there were more games in which young and old took part. W. G. Boyd had general charge of the picnic arrangements. Willard Boyd and Mr. Colvin were in charge of the coffee. The picnic ended in time for those in attendance to leave for home by 8 p. m.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Last Thursday evening Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert of 348 West Park avenue was hostess at a surprise dinner party given to celebrate the birthday of her husband at which covers were laid for seventeen, including officers of the Great Republic Life Insurance Company and their wives. Orchid shades dominated the floral decorations and other appointments of the table. The guests remained for an evening of music and readings.

BASKET MAKING

HERMAN PAINE SAYS MANUFACTURING CONDITIONS HAVE IMPROVED

Herman Paine, manager of the L. A. Basket Factory, reports a larger business than ever this season, with conditions as far as production is concerned considerably improved. Four new basket-making machines will be ready for delivery in about a month which will then give the factory ten machines for turning out fruit and vegetable containers. This will in no way diminish the demand for hand labor, however, and Mr. Paine says he will be able to make use of all workers who apply. Of late, he has experienced no difficulty in getting the lumber needed and the difficulties of getting steel are disappearing. It is now possible to get what is needed and of the sort best adapted to the work. Another great help has been the change in railroad conditions. "I was sure glad to see the roads go back to private ownership," Mr. Paine declares. "Before that we could be sure of nothing from the government. Now we get all the cars we want and when we want them."

Mr. Paine states that the berry basket season is about over for them and the goods being shipped out now is the five-pound grape baskets. The corner of the fruit market and high prices charged for fruit does not affect his output, he says, because so long as fruit is raised and sold containers must be bought.

The funeral of Mrs. J. Hoopes was held yesterday in the Little Church of the Flowers, Rev. C. A. Cole officiating. The body was placed in the vault to await the decision of the family as to whether they would inter in a grave or secure a crypt in the mausoleum to receive it.

M. P. Harrison has returned from an outing with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lenox, of Van Nuys, and Mr. and Mrs. Dickey of the same city. They went first to Yucaipa and from there journeyed to Idyllwild where they spent a week and had a good time but not much fishing.

Rev. F. Marion Smith, pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist Church, and Mrs. Smith went to the Methodist Hospital Monday to have their tonsils removed. Hutchison is trying to prove an alibi and the case is set for the 30th. The victim here has gone east and will testify at the trial. It looks, however, as if Mr. McLaren would be detained there until after the fourth.

WE ARE HERE TO HELP YOU

Home ownership brings with it a sense of contentment, a feeling of freedom and a consciousness of permanency that is the birthright of every American man and woman and especially of every American child, for children should be reared in such an atmosphere as that fostered where the family owns the home it occupies.

If you have been thinking of building a home, talk it over with us. We can make suggestions and give you information you will appreciate.

If you have thought you can't afford to build, talk it over with us anyway. We may be able to prove to you that you can afford to build a modern, attractive house that you will be proud to call home.

Ripe peaches are coming to the Glendale stores now from this immediate vicinity. Up along Sixth street, west of Grand View avenue, there is a 10-acre orchard of peaches, half of them of very early variety, and a very busy scene is presented each day, with the pickers going from tree to tree taking off the deep red peaches, while the sorters fill the lug boxes with the sweet smelling fruit. Scores of boxes have been filled from the orchard already and many more will be secured during the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis of 225 South Central avenue entertained at dinner Saturday night, quite a group of old friends, covers being laid for Mrs. Benson Locke and Mrs. John Lander of Newton, Kansas, Mrs. M. E. Blyth of Garfield avenue, mother of the hostess, her sister and house guest, Mrs. M. J. Van Ostran of Yakima, Wash., who is, of course, the aunt of the hostess, and Mr. and Mrs. Davis. MEEKERS RETURN hap to either party other than damaged fenders.

Mrs. Meeker and her daughter then took the train at Willets and went north to join Mr. Meeker at Eureka. Though the little girl is eleven years old it was her first train ride and she was wild about the experience.

The return trip from Eureka was made along the splendid highway; one hundred miles through the most wonderful redwood forest in the world. While the roads are dirt roads for the most part, they are good and the experience is something to always remember with joy, Mrs. Meeker says. She was so determined to see it all and made her husband drive so slowly and stop so frequently he finally expressed the fear he would never get her home. Already the logging companies are going in and beginning to cut down the trees along that highway, the like of which is not to be found anywhere else on earth, and Mrs. Meeker thinks the state should take some action to secure land on either side of the thoroughfare so those wonderful trees bordering the way may be preserved for the pleasure of generations to come. It makes you sick to see the destruction beginning, she says.

It seemed to her on the way home that all of Southern California must have left this part of the country to camp in the north, so thick were the automobiles along the way and at every camping site. There was much trouble about supplies of gasoline but the Meeker car can carry a considerable amount and they had friends along the way through whom they obtained special concessions in the way of gifts of gas from dealers who were not permitted to sell to tourists. When they got to San Luis Obispo and Santa Barbara there was an abundant supply to be had.

OUR employers, the public, have found us to be reliable and capable. The quality of the service rendered by us reflects credit upon our profession.

On reaching San Francisco they found every hotel accommodation engaged in advance for convention week and the city more crowded than they had ever seen it before. They witnessed the triumphal entry of the Iowa delegation and to Mrs. Meeker it was like snuffing the battle from afar. She was tempted to stay, the more so because a relative had offered her a ticket to the convention, but she was also a little homesick and so elected to turn her back on Democratic excitements and come home.

At Santa Barbara they ran into rain. They also found it raining in the north on their way up and forty per cent of the cherry crop was lost on that account. All are glad to be in Glendale again but Mrs. Meeker has been converted into a champion of a redwood reserve and will probably be heard from again.

Many Shriners have been noted driving through Glendale this week, gaily bedecked in the brilliant regalia of the order. They had been to the annual conclave in Portland, Oregon, and could not go back East until they had seen some of the many beauties of the Southland.
